

KENZEL PATTERSON

Kenzel I. Patterson is an accomplished contemporary gospel artist who has dedicated his life to music and his faith. He grew up as an active member of the Tried Stone Baptist Church in Middletown, Ohio, where he honed his skills as a choir member and soloist. From a young age, Kenzel discovered his passion for Christ and music, influenced by his mother, a talented vocalist and former choir member, and his father, a retired professional percussionist.

During his time in the choir, Patterson's exceptional talent as a solo performer emerged, leading him to become the minister of music at Tried Stone. Throughout his musical journey, he has traveled extensively, taking on the responsibility of leading worship and praise in various locations.

In 2021, Kenzel Patterson released his debut single, "Everything to Me," a heartfelt composition he penned himself. Celebrating his remarkable 10-year journey as a praise and worship leader, Patterson currently serves as the minister of music at Omega Baptist Church in Dayton, OH. In addition to his role as a vocalist, he is also exploring his skills as a budding songwriter.

Kenzel eagerly looks forward to sharing his uplifting message through his music and worship, aiming to touch the hearts of people worldwide. His passion for Christ is reflected in his performances, showcasing his deep love and adoration for his faith.
